MMS makes a Large Donation to PROJECT C.U.R.E.

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI - August 8, 2007. More than $100,000 worth of donated medical supplies and equipment was transferred from MMS - A Medical Supply Company by Wal-Mart trucks on Tuesday, August 7, 2007. MMS is helping non-profit humanitarian relief agency, PROJECT C.U.R.E., in its mission to deliver health and hope to the world by offering truckloads of donated medical supplies to their warehouse in Nashville, TN. These supplies will then be delivered by cargo container to developing nation hospitals.

MMS' donation to PROJECT C.U.R.E. will play a significant role in many individuals' lives. Ed Warren, MMS Vice President of Operations/Marketing stated, "We are happy to be a part of such a wonderful cause and able to make a positive impact on other's lives."

Project C.U.R.E. is the world's largest volume distributor of donated medical supplies and equipment to developing nations-delivering two to three 40-foot cargo containers a week. Since 1987, Denver-based PROJECT C.U.R.E. has delivered donated medical supplies and equipment to the most desperately ill and needy people living in more than 100 countries around the world.

In developing nations, thousands of children are born on the hospital floor, patients lay two and three in a single bed, surgeons have no suture
