MMS Awarded Department of Defense Contract

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI—August 2, 2005—MMS, one of the largest independent healthcare distributors, was recently awarded a contract to serve as one of two back up prime vendors to distribute medical/surgical supplies for the Global North Region of the U.S. military and other agencies.

The contract is a maximum $100 million firm fixed price indefinite quantity type contract with one 20-month base period, one 20-month option period, and one 32-month option period. The contract will provide medical/surgical supplies at a great savings to the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, federal civilian agencies, and other non-DoD organizations worldwide. This contract reinforces the MMS Government Division's position as a leading provider of medical/ surgical products.

“With over 20 years of experience, MMS has enjoyed a long standing relationship with the Defense Supply Center Philadelphia and the Department of Defense. This contract gives MMS the opportunity to strengthen our relationship with the U.S. military around the world,” Said Stan Swiecicki, Director of Government Sales.
